

2183 Private Wilson Brown

Enlisted: Early 1916, probably Feb.-March

Next of Kin: Ms. Elizabeth Keefe, Little Harbour, Twillingate. In the Newfoundland census of 1921, Mrs. Keefe appears as the wife of Samuel Keefe, Methodist.

Death: October 12, 1916

Burial: Private Brown's name is inscribed on the Beaumont Hamel, Newfoundland Memorial, Beaumont Hamel, France. Thus we may assume that his remains were never found or officially identified and that he has no known grave site.

Special Note: Due to an oversight by Veterans' Affairs, Canada, the military record of Private Brown is not available at St. John's, as are the records of most other soldiers. Information above is based partly on records other than the individual's official documents and partly on reason and deduction.